

Season of Creation, Week Three: Healing Ourselves and Creation
September 20, 2020
Service of the Word with Healing

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it;
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before God, who will come,
Who will come to judge the earth.

God will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 96:11-13

The Season of Creation, September 1st through October 4th, is celebrated by Christians around the world as a time for renewing, repairing and restoring our relationship to God, one another, and all of creation.

The Episcopal Church joins this international effort for prayer and action for climate justice and an end to environmental racism and ecological destruction.

This year's theme is Jubilee for the Earth: New Rhythms, New Hope. In celebrating the Season, we are invited to consider anew our ecological, economic, and political ways of living.

Opening Acclamation

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

Jesus said: "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."
- Matthew 11:28-30

A Collect for Creation

Climate Change Collect, SeasonofCreation.org

God be with you.
And also with you.
Let us pray.

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Almighty God you created the heavens and the earth and all that is in them, and you created humankind in your own image, and it was very good: grant us the courage to recognize our failure to maintain your creation and by your grace do all that we can to halt the degradation of our environment; through Jesus Christ our Lord who came that we might have life in all its fullness. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from the Book of Genesis 1:20-25

Susannah White

And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.' So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.' And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.' And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good. Here ends the reading.

Psalm 104: 25-35, 37

Barbara Barhydt

- 25 O Holy One, how manifold are your works; *
in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, * which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of God endure for ever; *
may the Holy One rejoice in all creation.
- 33 God looks at the earth and it trembles; *
God touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to God as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine find favor; *
I will rejoice in the Holy One.
- 37 Bless the Holy One, O my soul. *
Alleluia!

A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew 20: 1-16

Heather Sylvester

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Here ends the reading from the Gospel.

The Affirmation of Faith

New Zealand Prayer Book

You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us.

Imelda Schaefer

You, O God, are infinitely generous,
Good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved your love for us
in Jesus Christ,
who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God.
We worship you. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Common Worship, Times and Seasons, adapted

Eternal God:
We thank you for the beauty of the World:
for the teeming life of the seas,
the flight of birds, and the diversity of animal life.
Grant us grace to treat Creation with respect and care;
to protect endangered species,
to preserve the variety of habitats,
and to honor the delicate balance of nature.
God of life:
hear our prayer.

Susie Peixotto

We thank you for the wealth of blessings from land and sea;
for the power of wind, and the warmth of sun.
We pray for the nations of the earth, give us the will to cherish this planet and to use its resources sustainably for the welfare of all.
God of justice:
hear our prayer.

We pray for the faithful witness of the Church,
called to reconcile and heal:
For this parish, and Nina our Rector, for Thomas our Bishop, and Michael our Presiding Bishop.

In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for the congregations of St. Peter's, in Bridgton; and St. Ann's, in Windham; and for all ministries of racial reconciliation and racial justice.

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan.
God of grace:
hear our prayer.

We pray for the human family.
We exult in our diversity and giftedness,
we repent of our sins, divisions and violence.
By the power of your Spirit, restore your image within us.
As every human being is known and loved by you,
may we care for one another with love and respect.
We pray for those you have commended to our care: Steph; Bobby; Charles; Kellan; Pat; Mackenzie;
Mimma; Scott; Marcella; Libby; David; Noreen; Tim; Sam; Kathie; Diane; Brittany; Arthur; Matthew; Jean; Lee; Jay; Sally; and Linda.
God of compassion:
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died, whom we entrust to your eternal love;
may we support and comfort those who mourn.
God of peace:
hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect

*adapted,
Green Anglicans, Season of Creation Two*

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Creating God, your name is written in every leaf, every bird, every river, every stone, every living being.
Thank you for calling us by name. Thank you for your continued creating power in water, rivers, forests and oceans. Make us attentive to the wounds of the earth and willing to work for the healing of the whole creation, that our children may enjoy its abundance, and a long life on your beloved earth, Amen.

The Confession

Enriching Our Worship

Let us pray for the forgiveness of our sins:

Heather Sylvester

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will.
Amen.

The Absolution

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit
keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Gathering all our prayers and praises into one, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we now sing:

Laying on of Hands and Anointing

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Introduction to Healing and Shawl Blessing

The ministry of Jesus invites us to new life in God and with each other. As we pray together for the healing of all, we proclaim the Good News that God desires us to be healthy and one in the body of Christ. In addition to those for whom you pray, you are invited to offer yourself to God, whatever your illness of spirit, mind, or body, and ask for healing and wholeness in the Name of the holy and undivided Trinity.

Let us pray:

Common Worship

Heal us, O God, from all our afflictions and keep us steadfast in your love;
bind up our wounds,
raise us from death,
and lead us to fullness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Savior.
Amen.

May you and those for whom you pray find healing and peace in the name of God, the holy and undivided Trinity. May Christ be present with you to comfort you, to guard and protect you, and to keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

Shawl Blessing

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley and Sally Edwards

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

Let us greet one another with the sign of peace by texting a few of our friends, people we sit near when in church, family and friends far and wide!

A Prayer for the Power of the Spirit Among the People of God

Pam Hobson

God of all power and love, we give thanks for your unfailing presence and the hope you provide in times of uncertainty and loss.
Send your Holy Spirit to enkindle in us your holy fire.
Revive us to live as Christ's body in the world:
a people who pray, worship, learn,
break bread, share life, heal neighbors, bear good news, seek justice, rest and grow in the Spirit.
Wherever and however we gather, unite us in common prayer and send us in common mission, that we and the whole creation might be restored and renewed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Adapted from

Concluding Prayer

Churches together in Britain and Ireland – resources for creation time

Let us pray.

Paule French

Create in us a new heart and a new vision, O God, that the gifts of Your Spirit may work in us and renew the face of the earth.
May we be one with you
so that our work is yours and your work is ours.
May we transform our lives to reflect your glory in Creation;
through Jesus Christ our Savior
who is alive with you and the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever.
Amen.

The Blessing

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

May our Creator God
Give you passion, give you fire;
so that you may transform the world from what it is,
to what God has created it to be.
And may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you now and always.
Amen.

The Dismissal

The Rev. Nina R. Pooley

Let us bless our God and all Creation. Alleluia, alleluia.
Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Useful Resources During this Pandemic:

Healing Prayers

The Pastoral Care Committee is available to offer healing prayers upon request via a phone call or video call. If you would like to arrange such a call, please contact Barbara Barhydt (jbml@gwi.net) or Pam Hobson (pamhobson46@gmail.com), and they will schedule a convenient time with one of the Committee members.

Maine Front Line Warm Line is a free, confidential warm line for Front Line healthcare providers and First Responders who are feeling the emotional effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic. A team of Maine licensed mental health volunteers is ready to support Front Line callers facing stressors due to COVID-19. Front Line healthcare providers and First Responders can call (207) 221-8196, seven days a week to speak with one of these trained volunteers. To be connected via text to a Warm Line volunteer: Text "Frontline" to 898-211.

If you need assistance with such things as grocery shopping (if you aren't comfortable going out) or other needs (including emotional first aide, because goodness knows we all need that right now), you can call the Yarmouth Help Line Mon-Sat from 10am-2pm at 846-4763.

And if you have specific questions that our senior Resource Specialist Michele Grivois can answer please call her at 835-9866. She is available on Tues and Thursdays but will return you call if you leave a message.

Announcements

Imelda Schaefer will lead our Zoom coffee hour following the service today. The topic for discussion will be: What are you tending to...a house plant, a garden, a pet?

YCHI News - If you can help, please let me know. Carla Hunt, musseit@yahoo.com or 206-251-8694 (note the area code).

*Two Yarmouth middle school students are in need of desks to use for their remote learning at home. If you have an adult size desk for a middle schooler, (we need two of them), We can arrange for pick-up.

*Furniture Friends is in need of volunteers who can pick up furniture with their own trucks and deliver it to Furniture Friends. They have many requests for pick-ups but very little manpower which means that stock is getting low and it is becoming difficult for them to support people in need. YCHI uses Furniture Friends for every family moving into their own home; most recently, a month ago. If you want to restrict your pick-ups to areas in Yarmouth, Cumberland or Falmouth that would be just fine.

CHRISTMAS FAIR IN OCTOBER! - Fall is in the air . . . and this year we are going to Fall with Christmas!!

Our "Christmas Fair in October" will be on Saturday, October 10th. Please contact Cecilia Guecia, gueciacecilia@gmail.com if you would like to participate OR if you have ideas for our "Christmas Fair" in October, which will be held from 9:00 - 2:00 at the Bickford Collection Pavilion on Main Street! We need lots of help - quickly - to pull this off and welcome newcomers to the team!! We need parking help, people counters, ticket takers, as well as help setting up, taking down, and working the Fair! If you prefer to call, call Cecilia at 207-772-0720!

Artisans, Fine Arts and a little Whimsy

This year, for our Christmas Fair in October, we will be transitioning from our Silent Auction to a Fine Arts table. We will showcase the talents of woodworkers, furniture makers, artists and artisans. We will be curating our collection to include a limited number of items. To date we have some David Platt furniture, a beautiful Bicentennial Quilt and a Lu Tingley original silver bracelet. Please call Laurie Hyndman at 233-9439 or email her at lauriehyndman@gmail.com if you have items that might fit the bill. Thank you.

Call for volunteers on Fair Day! Because we are at a new location, and with COVID restrictions, we are going to need additional help. If you can help on October 10th, please contact Cecilia at gueciacecilia@gmail.com

The Christmas Greens table will be autumn arrangements! Contact Mary Calvin at maryecalvin@gmail.com if you have ideas or would like to lend a hand!

Crafts - Calling all crafters!! There's still plenty of time to make a craft before this year's Fair. You can make 6 of any item, or more if you think appropriate. Table decor/linens, scarves, pot holders, mittens, hats, face masks, coasters, soaps, candles, bath salts/bombs, wooden or metal crafts or whatever you would like to contribute. If you need suggestions or have questions, please contact Harriet Davis (harriet.davis@gmail.com).

A large blue bin, clearly marked, is outside the church underneath the overhang for Craft donations.

Jewelry - donations are needed! After last year's very successful Fair, our jewelry inventory is quite low. Please check if you have items you no longer use and consider donating. We accept all jewelry - costume, silver, gold - bracelets, necklaces, earrings, rings, pins, etc! If an item is broken, our elves will repair. We do need time to price, polish, repair as needed, so time is of the essence. Please add a note with your name if you would like a tax receipt. You can drop off Jewelry when the church office is open, or I am happy to pick-up from your front porch, just let me know. (This year we will not be selling scarves and handbags.) Thank You ~Anne Jacobs (ajacobs207@gmail.com, 776-5852).

A large blue bin, clearly marked, is outside the church underneath the overhang for Jewelry donations.

Attic Treasures – Volunteers needed to help set up and work at the Fair. Two to three hour shifts are available between 7am and 4pm. This year we are looking for seasonal decorative items, kitchen items, tableware, ceramics, Artwork, lamps, games & puzzles, baskets. Due to limited space we will not be accepting stuffed animals, electronics, all kitchen appliances, camping gear & sports equipment. Please make sure your 'treasures' are clean and securely boxed and leave them in the shed on the right-side shelves. Questions & comments to: Liza Chandler 846-9432.

Frozen Food Orders - Plan on filling up your freezer this December! Orders and pre-payments will be taken for frozen entrees and soups at the October 10th fair. The frozen foods will then be available for curbside pick-up on Saturday, December 5th, which corresponds with the Christmas wreath pick-ups. While we need to finalize the list of available frozen food items before October 10th, cooking is not required until November! Please contact Barbara Barhydt (jbml@gwi.net) or Michele Johns (michele49johns@gmail.com) if you are interested in cooking.

Friendship House - We are collecting donations of: pillows, razors, shaving cream, shampoo, toothpaste and body wash. They can be dropped off in the plastic box labeled "Friendship House" under the wooden bench that sits below the overhang at the front of the church. Also, financial contributions are welcomed and can be mailed to: Friendship House, 390 Lincoln Street, South Portland, Maine 04106.

BOOK NOTES – Fall 2020

We cannot accept new donations of books at this time. Unless and until the church building is open, we have neither browsers nor customers to visit the book room. We are brainstorming ways to make use of our inventory, but for the time being, St. Bart's bookstore is closed. Please keep in mind that leaving books or other paper or cloth-based products in the shed means they are fair game for mold and/or nesting rodents. If you have books to donate to St. Bart's for the future, best to keep them at home until the building is open.

FMI, contact Margaret Betts, mmbetts@roadrunner.com, Linda Draper, ldraper347@gmail.com, Jan Burson, janzimsu64@gmail.com, or Linda Perkins, lindaperkins77@gmail.com.

St. Elizabeth's Essentials Pantry -

St. Elizabeth's is now accepting donations of adult winter coats and winter boots. Donations can be brought to the rear parking lot of St. Luke's (134 Park Street) on any Tuesday between 8:30-11am and placed in the bin provided during these hours. You can also drop them off in the large, labelled bins outside of the St. Bart's office under cover near the bench. These items will be distributed to neighbors in need in October.

Boots: Please label toe of boots with its size (ex. Men's 10) using masking tape and tie the laces together.

Coats: Please make sure all coats are clean and in good working order.

(Please donate children's coats and boots to one of the many organizations that specialize in these items.)

We Need Volunteers:

If you are willing to serve directly with the public during our distributions on Tuesdays this fall and winter, please contact the St. Elizabeth's board member for St. Bart's: Anne Jacobs at ajacobs207@gmail.com. Masks and face shields will be provided. If you'd be willing to serve behind the scenes by repairing jackets (sewing on buttons or organizing inventory), please also contact Anne.

Yarmouth Food Pantry currently has a need for the following items: Boxed Mac and Cheese - Canned Pasta - Cereal - Laundry Soap - Dish Soap - Shampoo - Conditioner - Kids small snack bags of Cheez-Its/Popcorn. Please place donations at the rear of the First Parish Church in the basket by the Food Pantry door.
